

The Lobster Lady's 2012 Tour Specials

Southern Maine Coast & Coves

May 29 – June 1, 2012 4 days / 3 nights / 6 meals

Three nights in Ogunquit, the Beautiful Place by the Sea, + Day trips to near by Kennebunkport and Portland. Ride the rails at the Maine Narrow Gauge Railroad Museum. You'll learn how Maine lobstermen make their living on board a special lobster tour boat. Visit area lighthouses and Stonewall Kitchen.

$365 single, $275 pp double, $265 pp triple, $255 pp quad

New England Foliage Charm

September 14 – 21, 2012 8 days / 7 nights / 14 meals

Journey from the seaport towns of Massachusetts, to the rocky coast of Maine, on to the White Mountains of New Hampshire and across the Green Mountains of Vermont. You'll see the autumn leaves at the beginning of fall foliage season as you visit charming New England highlights. This spectacular sightseeing tour includes a cruise on Lake Champlain, private Maine lighthouse tour, lantern tour, cranberry farm, candle dipping, NH castle, train ride, sweet maple tour, Shaker village, Maine lobstering cruise and more treasures along the way. Tour begins and ends in Boston, but can be customized.

$1445 single, $1075 pp double, $995 pp triple, $945 pp quad
*can accommodate a Fly-In Group & full time escort

Bourne Scallop Festival including Buzzards Bay, Cape Cod & Martha's Vineyard September 21 – 25, 2012

5 days / 4 nights / 9 meals

All the sights from Hyannis to Provincetown plus a day of exploring the storybook island of Martha's Vineyard. Individual passenger choice of a whale watch or dune ride on your P-Town afternoon. Tour is topped off with the 43rd Annual Bourne Scallop Festival with plenty of seafood tasting!

$725 single, $525 pp double, $495 pp triple, $475 pp quad

Pumpkins & Pilgrams

October 21- 23, 2012 3 days / 2 nights / 4 meals

A fall foliage harvest tour. Attend the Annual Jack-O-Lantern Spectacular with thousands of creatively carved, lit pumpkins in Providence, RI. Then step back in time in Plymouth, MA, where you'll dine with a pilgrim, meet with the grist mill, and tour a cranberry farm

$400 single, $270 pp double, $250 pp triple, $230 pp quad

